

Brad C. Slaney, CPA, Director

As a Director with the firm, Brad offers Horty & Horty, P.A. clients' expertise in traditional accounting, audit, and tax services. Working with clients in the gaming, construction, not-for-profit, real estate development and governmental industries, Brad welcomes the challenge of solving issues for clients and his attention to detail and strong work ethic have been influential in his career. Brad enjoys the variety of his day, whether it's helping clients improve internal controls, reduce tax burdens or expose inefficiencies, clients can rest-assured knowing that they have Brad's full attention.

Brad serves on the Board of Trustees of the Delaware Breast Cancer Coalition. Additionally, he is an active participant in the firm's business development efforts and regularly attends mid-lower Delaware events hosted by the Home Builders Association of Delaware, Central Delaware Chamber of Commerce, Delaware Contractors Association and various other mid-lower Delaware associations.

Education:

Bachelor of Science, Accounting, Delaware State University (1998)

Professional Licenses & Affiliations:

Certified Public Accountant
Member, DSCPA

Experience:

Horty & Horty, P.A., Director, 1998 to present

Contact:

bslaney@horty.com